ONE YEAR OF WOBIS

It has been a year since the WOBIS project began. Many activities took place during this first year. After the Kick-off meeting in May 2022 at the University in Nitra, the partnership met in October in Italy in Bovino, hosted by Meridaunia. The event was part of a three-day international networking event based on sustainable development and circular economy. The WOBIS project entered the contribution of gender equality in the new paradigm of sustainable development, which must embrace the three bottom lines: economic, environmental and social, and where women play a generative role in making communities and the economy dynamic and empathetic.

The WOBIS partners developed the curricula for the training resources outlining what are the training objectives, outputs and modes of use of the WOBIS modules. The modules are divided into two blocks:

BLOCK 1:

- Module 1: Self-esteem
- Module 2: Interpersonal communication
- Module 3: Assertiveness, expressing one's needs and managing stress and other emotions
- Module 4: Organizing one's time and planning for the future

BLOCK 2:

- Module 1: Entrepreneurship in rural areas - current challenges
- Module 2: Sources of obtaining and financing investments in rural areas
- Module 3: Creative entrepreneurship
- Module 4: Building relationships

WOBIS PARTNERSHIP

The WOBIS project partnership consists of seven organizations from six different European countries. The coordinator of the project is the Civic Association Rural Parliament in Slovakia.

3rd Transnational Meeting of Partners

The third transnational meeting of WOBIS project partners was held in Krakow, Poland, on 17 April 2023, hosted by Arid. Partners from Slovakia, Poland, Italy and the Czech Republic physically attended the meeting in Nitra, while the Spanish and Croatian partners virtually joined them due to obstacles caused by airport workers' strikes in France.

The meeting was opened with welcomes from the host partner ARID. During the meeting, the economic and financial situation was presented by the project leader and the quality assessment of the activities carried out so far was discussed. The meeting continued by discussing the next activities to be carried out for the development of the training modules; the partners all made significant contributions to the WOBIS discussion by sharing their know-how, which allows for a complex and holistic project in its delivery of the final results.
